Claim 5 (currently amended): A test figure, comprising:

a set of shaped body parts;

connector elements at least partly mounted on said body parts;

said connector elements interconnecting said body parts;

said connector elements having locking mechanisms to hold said body parts in at least one set position ~~relation~~ with respect to each other.

Claim 6 (original): The test figure of claim 5, wherein said body parts are comprised of plastic type material.

Claim 7 (original): The test figure of claim 5, wherein said body parts are comprised of rubber.

Claim 8 (original): The test figure of claim 7, wherein said rubber is hard.

Claim 9 (original): The test figure of claim 7, wherein said rubber is soft.

Claim 10 (original): The test figure of claim 5, wherein said body parts include a pair of lower legs, a pair of thighs and a torso.

Claim 11 (original): The test figure of claim 10, wherein said thighs are articulating.

Claim 12 (original): The test figure of claim 10, wherein said torso includes a head with a neck.

Claim 13 (original): The test figure of claim 10, wherein said torso includes arms.

Claim 14 (original): The test figure of claim 13, wherein said arms are upper arms.

Claim 15 (original): The test figure of claim 14, wherein said upper arms are articulating.

Claim 16 (original): The test figure of claim 14, wherein said upper arms are not articulating.

Claim 17 (original): The test figure of claim 14, wherein said upper arms include lower arms.

Claim 18 (original): The test figure of claim 17, wherein said lower arms are articulating.

Claim 19 (original): The test figure of claim 17, wherein said lower arms form elbows with said upper arms.

Claim 20 (original): The test figure of claim 17, wherein said lower arms are not articulating.

Claim 21 (original): The test figure of claim 17, wherein said lower arms include hands.

Claim 22 (original): The test figure of claim 21, wherein said hands are articulating.

Claim 23 (original): The test figure of claim 21, wherein said hands are not articulating.

Claim 24 (original): The test figure of claim 10, wherein said torso may connect to said thighs in multiple different positions.

Claim 25 (original): The test figure of claim 10, wherein said thighs may connect to said lower legs in multiple different positions.

Claim 26 (original): The test figure of claim 25, wherein the connection of said thighs and said lower legs form knees.

Claim 27 (original): The test figure of claim 26, wherein said knees are angled up toward said torso.

Claim 28 (original): The test figure of claim 26, wherein said knees are separated.

Claim 29 (original): The test figure of claim 26, wherein said knees are in a sitting position.

Claim 30 (original): The test figure of claim 26, wherein said knees are straight forward.

Claim 31 (original): The test figure of claim 10, wherein there is included a head as an integral part of said torso.

Claim 32 (original): The test figure of claim 10, wherein there is included a head detachably connected to said torso.

Claim 33 (original): The test figure of claim 10, wherein said body parts are in an erect position.

Claim 34 (original): The test figure of claim 10, wherein said body parts are in a reclining position.

Claim 35 (original): The test figure of claim 10, wherein said body parts are in a sitting position.

Claim 36 (currently amended): A test figure for use of material to vary weight, comprising:

- a set of shaped body parts, including a set of thighs, a set of lower legs, a torso;
- each of said body parts having at least one connector to connect it to at least one other body part;

- fill mechanisms mounted on said body parts to independently permit the introduction of fill material to vary the weight of each of said body parts.

Claim 37 (currently amended): The test figure of claim 36, wherein said fill mechanism is ~~includes~~ a drain mechanism for the fill material.

Claim 38 (original): A test figure for use with a temperature controlled substance, comprising:

- a set of shaped body parts;
- each of said body parts having at least one connector to connect it to at least one other body part;

- at least one fill mechanism mounted on each body part, said fill mechanisms arranged to permit the flow of the substance between said body parts, whereby the body parts are maintained substantially at the same temperature.

Claim 39 (original): A test figure, comprising:

a set of shaped body parts;

connector elements at least partly mounted on said body parts;

said connector elements detachably interconnecting said body parts.
